Annual Meeting App Sponsorship

$10,000

Have your company message in the mobile application with banner advertising. The mobile application will be the primary source for any and all meeting information seen by the attendees.

Meeting Bags

$6,000

This is an opportunity to be the only company to have information in the meeting bags which every surgeon will receive. Due to the new regulations, it is up to the supporting company whether their internal guidelines allow a logo to be displayed on the bag. Bags will be produced by EVS.

Simulation Program (NEW)

$10,000

This is an opportunity for companies to have their simulation equipment for demonstration onsite during the EVS meeting. More information can be obtained by contacting Stan Alger, EVS Executive Director, at salger@pri.com or (978) 927-8330.

Jobs Fair

At the 2016 EVS Annual Meeting a Jobs Fair was introduced into the program and the Society plans to do this again. If you are a company that would benefit from participating in this please contact Stan Alger (please see below) for more information.
